

---

WOMEN IN TECH

---

XEALTH PRESENTS

KICKING DOWN WALLS

You are invited to an event hosted by Xealth to discuss inclusion and diversity in the Seattle technology sector from our keynote speaker, Heidi Roizen.

'Life is about meaningful work and meaningful relationships.'

— Heidi Roizen

SMITH TOWER

506 2nd Ave, 8th Floor, Seattle, WA 98104

POWERED BY
xealth®

Heidi Roizen is a venture capitalist, corporate director and recovering entrepreneur.

She co-founded software company T/Maker and served as its CEO for over a dozen years until its acquisition by Deluxe Corporation. After a year as VP of Worldwide Developer Relations at Apple, she then became a venture capitalist, and is now an investment partner at leading technology venture firm DFJ. She is a corporate director for DMGT (LSE:DMGT), Planet, Zoox, Memphis Meats, Divvy and ShareThis. Heidi is also the co-lead of Stanford's DFJ Entrepreneurial Leaders Fellowship Program in the Management Science and Engineering department at Stanford. She has undergraduate and MBA degrees from Stanford, and is the proud mother of two kids and two rescue dogs.

HEIDI ROIZEN

DFJ Venture Partner

---

THURSDAY
MAY 17TH, 2018

-
- 4:00 PM Doors Open and Social: Appetizers and Drinks
  - 5:00 PM "Best Practices for a Relationship-Driven Life" by Heidi Roizen
  - 5:30 PM Q&A with Heidi Roizen and Xealth Founders
  - 6:00 PM Networking and Raffle
-

WE'RE HIRING!

jobs@xealth.io
www.xealth.io
twitter.com/xealthinc